The Directors of all Campuses/ Principals of Adarsha Sanskrita Mahavidyalya/ Heads of Affiliated Research Institutes of Central Sanskrit University

Sub: Invitation for the proposal of Introductory/ Short term /Certificate/ Diploma Course under IKS Scheme - 1 on observance of Amruta-Mahotsava.

Sir/Madam,

As you are aware our country is observing 75th year of Independence (आजादी का अमृतमहोत्सव). Besides, NEP – 2020 (vide its clause No. 4.17, 4.27 and 22.15) gives emphasis on Indian Knowledge System (IKS) in general and Sanskrit knowledge System (SSS) in particular. Keeping this in view, a new scheme has been launched, namely, Amruta-Mahotsava IKS scheme. In the first phase of this scheme applications are invited for the proposal of introductory/Certificate/ Short term/ diploma course under Indic Knowledge system (IKS) on the occasion of Amruta Mahotsava. All faculty members and other academic staff (including Director of Physical education and Librarians of the institutes) may apply through the google form link given in the notification and by sending the hard copy of the same to : The Director (Academic Affairs), Central Sanskrit University, 56-57 Institutional Area, Janak puri, New Delhi-110058 and email at: am_iks_scheme@csu.co.in within one month of the date of the notification. After the last date no proposal will be entertained. For more information kindly go through the details enclosed with this notification.

Amruta Mahotsava IKS scheme -1

(Amruta Mahotsava - IKS Course Design and Content Development Scheme for CSU Campuses and all its Affiliated Institutions)

Preamble

India has always been known as a 'knowledge society'. Derived from the verbal root 'vid' meaning 'to know', the Vedas as 'shruti', are considered the fountainhead of what came to be known as the Indic Knowledge Tradition (IKT). Mahābhārata (12,169.033) says : Nāsti vidyāsamaṃ cakṣur nāsti vidyāsamaṃ balam (नास्तिविद्यासमंचक्षुःनास्तिविद्यासमंबलम्). That means : Just as the eyes light up the physical world before us and guide all our activities, vidyā (knowledge) shows us the true nature of the various phenomena of life. It thus helps us to make informed choices to achieve our objectives.

To make the 75th year of Independence as memorable our country observes Amruta Mahotsavathis year. The observation will be fruitful if we can enrich our Indic Knowledge System (IKS)Amruta Mahotsava IKS scheme -1 can be considered as the first step in this direction.

Objective

Main Objective of this scheme is to bring the innovative ideas generated through research to the classrooms. The present Program (Amruta Mahotsava IKS Scheme-1) is mainly meant for CSU faculty including all its Affiliated Institutions.

Why do we need IKS Courses in Sanskrit ?

The oldest source of Indic knowledge is available in Sanskrit. The Indian tradition based on Sanskrit knowledge regards vidyā as puruṣārtha-sādhana: the means for realizing the human potential. The tradition has bequeathed to us a knowledge system that is vast in its sweep and pertains to various levels of thinking. Ranging from the most outward form of knowledge, the applied sciences of Upavedas which systematizes the practices of fine arts, medicine, polity and weaponry to the life-giving vision of the Darśanas, Purāṇas and Dharmaśāstras, the auxiliary sciences of the Vedāṅgas, and the profound but cryptic meditations of the Vedas, the entire gamut of knowledge is mapped into 14 or 18 different fields. The Yājñavalkya smṛti (1.3) mentions 14 fields of knowledge, the caturdaśavidyāsthānāni:

Purāṇanyāyamīmāṃsādharmaśāstrāṅgamiśritāḥ /

Vedāḥ sthānāni vidyānāṃ dharmasya ca caturdaśa //

(पुराणन्यायमीमांसाधर्मशास्त्राङ्गमिश्रिताः ।

वेदाः स्थानानि विद्यानां धर्मस्य च चतुर्दश॥)

The Viṣṇu Purāṇa (3,6.27-28) adds the four Upavedas giving rise to 18 fields of learning or aṣṭādaśa-vidyāsthānāni:

aṅgāni vedāṣcatvāro mīmāṃsā nyāyavistarāḥ /

purāṇaṃ dhamarśāstraṃ ca vidyā hyetāṣcaturdaśa //

āyurvedo dhanurvedo gandharvaśceti te trayāḥ /

arthaśāstraṃ caturthaṃ ca vidyā aṣṭādaśaiva tāḥ //

(अङ्गानि वेदाश्चत्वारो मीमांसान्यायविस्तरः।

पुराणं धर्मशास्त्रं च विद्या ह्येताश्चतुर्दश॥
आयुर्वेदो धनुर्वेदो गन्धर्वश्चेति ते त्रयः।
अर्थशास्त्रं चतुर्थं च विद्या अष्टादशैव ताः॥)

Because of this fact, NEP - 2020 (vide its clause No. 4.17, 4.27 and 22.15) tries to focus on Indian Knowledge System in general and Sanskrit knowledge system in particular.

About the IKS Courses

This scheme is launched to support the faculty for designing and developing content for IKS Capsule courses (Certificate courses/short term courses/Introductory courses) and Diploma programs on various themes related Indic Knowledge Systems, Practices with reference to Sanskrit based Shastra -Traditions.

CSU Faculty members along with the faculties of affiliated Institutions (Adarsha Sanskrit Mahavidyalaya and CSU financed Research Institutes) or individual research scholars may use this opportunity to bring their ideas/thesis/concepts to the classroom environment in the form of courses (1 to 3 credits: 15 to 45 hrs.). At the first level proposals are invited from the faculty members either individually or in group to design innovative programs at certificate level with interdisciplinary or multidisciplinary approach in any area of IKS.

Outcomes of the course

Through these courses a common man or the people engaged in various disciplines can also get a chance to know the Indian tradition of knowledge based on authentic sources.
